

Engineering EXPO is the 40th Annual USF College of Engineering's celebration of National Engineering Week. Our goal is to educate students of all ages about how math, science, engineering and technology (STEM) affect our lives every day. EXPO showcases exhibits from USF student organizations, USF Departments, and local companies that aim to make STEM fun and exciting!

How Do I Get Involved? Volunteer!

- If you work 5 hours or more at EXPO you will receive a FREE 2012 Engineering EXPO T-Shirt & a meal ticket for Lupton's BBQ!
- If you're an Engineering Student, you may receive Extra Credit!
- If you're an Honors student, you'll receive Freshman5 credit!
- Go to <http://expo.eng.usf.edu/registration.php> and sign up as a volunteer today!!
- Dates and times to volunteer:
 - Friday, Feb. 17th: 7am-5pm
 - Saturday, Feb 18th: 7am-7pm
- Please maximize your times, as we really need your help a lot!

Who: YOU!

What: 40th Annual Engineering EXPO

Where: The entire Engineering Complex on USF Tampa Campus

Why: FREE T-Shirts, Food, etc!

When: February 17th-18th, 2012

How: <http://expo.eng.usf.edu/registration.php> (volunteer link at bottom)

Questions? Email us at:
USFEngEXPOVolunteers@gmail.com

Like Us On Facebook:
USF Engineering EXPO